

God, words and us

Quakers in conversation about religious difference

Available autumn 2017

QUAKERbooks

“Our differences are our richness, but also our problem... We have often wondered whether there is anything Quakers today can say as one.”

Quakers today live with this challenge, as Friends have lived with variants of it since the beginning of our Society.

God, words and us: Quakers in conversation about religious difference has been produced to help Friends explore the ways we speak about our deepest religious and spiritual experiences. It offers material and ideas, as well as modelling a process for further exploration. It could be a good follow-on from the ‘Reading Quaker faith & practice’ project, and useful spiritual preparation for Yearly Meeting 2018.

A copy will be sent to every local meeting in the autumn. But if you or your meeting would like additional copies, you can order them from:

Quaker Centre Bookshop
www.quaker.org.uk/resources/bookshop
quakercentre@quaker.org.uk
020 7663 1030/1031.

Cost £8 (plus P&P)

