FACILITATION & LEADERSHIP

ABOUT...

Facilitation and Leadership is a weekend to help you understand groups. You'll explore and try out facilitation skills and leadership alongside exploring being a Quaker facilitator.

This event will enable you to develop your confidence; your understanding and your skills as a facilitator. It combines theory with opportunities to put what you have learnt into practice during the weekend.

What are the aims of this weekend?

- Understanding community.
- Exploring how groups form and how they work together.
- Considering how to plan for facilitation.
- Understanding characters in groups.
- Understanding the importance of equal opportunities to facilitation.
- Learning about facilitating Quaker groups.

WHO...

Michael Eccles co-ordinates the Young Adult Leadership Programme at Woodbrooke and provides support for QPSW placement programmes.

Catherine Waithaka is the Quaker Life Youth Participation Officer. She is committed to furthering opportunities for Young Friends to engage with the wider Quaker community.

Plus volunteer facilitators with experience of working with facilitating and leading groups
